

Travel and Hospitality Expenses Report

Meric S. Gertler, President

For the period May 1, 2015 to April 30, 2016

The University of Toronto is committed to good governance and transparency.

Annual expense reporting advances transparency. Fiscal responsibility, sound administration, and conscientious internal audit support good governance.

As part of my commitment to these important standards, I am disclosing online the travel and hospitality expenses incurred in my duties as University President.

* "The Association of American Universities (AAU) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization of 62 leading public and private research universities in the United States and Canada. Founded in 1900 to advance the international standing of U.S. research universities, AAU today focuses on issues that are important to research-intensive universities, such as funding for research, research policy issues, and graduate and undergraduate education." [http://www.aau.edu/about/default.aspx?id=58]
 McGill and the University of Toronto are the only Canadian members of the AAU.

** "The U15 Group of Canadian Research Universities is a collective of Canada's leading research-intensive universities. Although each institution advances its own research and education mandate, The U15 Directorate works for the collective interest of all our members. We foster the development and delivery of long-term, sustainable higher education and research policy, in Canada and around the world." http://u15.ca/about-us

"The Council of Ontario Universities promotes university education and research and their role in preparing both undergraduate and graduate students for success in life and careers. A membership organization consisting of Ontario's 20 publicly assisted universities and one associate member, the Royal Military College of Canada, COU works with members to find consensus on a wide range of university issues and advances them with government and other stakeholders." http://cou.on.ca/about/

1 David H. Turpin, CM, PhD, LLD, FRSC, is the 13th president and vice-chancellor of the University of Alberta.

2 Since 1996, the University of Toronto has held graduation ceremonies in Hong Kong, home to a large concentration of UofT alumni with more than 4,000 graduates. The 20th anniversary ceremony welcomed approximately 800 attendees from across Asia, Canada, United States, Europe, and United Kingdom.

3 Invited to deliver a talk to the Utrecht Town Hall, "Innovation Creativity and Urban Regions". Subsequently, invited to address the BRICS Friendship Cities Conclave, "Are Innovative Cities Inclusive?"
